Chapter 26. Indiana University: Availability of Scholarships

IC 20-12-26-1

Transferability of scholarships

Sec. 1. All scholarships in the state university, issued for or founded upon subscription monies paid by individuals towards the construction of the university buildings, or any of them, or the right to use said scholarships for any session or sessions of the college year in said institution, may be transferred or sold by the holders thereof for a valuable consideration.
